Northeast Women's Bible Study began in 1981 with a group of women from the northeastern suburbs of Cincinnati. We are dedicated to the truth and application of Scripture. We believe that God's Word is divinely inspired and "makes us wise unto salvation" and is "profitable for teaching, rebuke, correction and training in righteousness."

Women from a variety of churches and parishes, those with no previous Bible study experience and those who are skilled in Bible study, gather in various homes in Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky to study God's Word. Visit our website for updated information on Bible studies and our summer OutPost speaker series.
